To the Public.

My overdraft against Citizens Bank Columbia, Ky., of $11.90 was due to a mistake of the bookkeeper of said Bank. This check entered the books first against W. L. Brockman, and was not rectified until after I had drawn out my deposit, October 3rd, 1910. I had, at the time the check entered the Bank, on deposit, $364.27. The money was at said Bank to my credit to pay this check from date of check until 3rd of October, 1910. So you see I had no occasion to overdraft and had my book balanced up the day I drew out the last of my deposit, and the accounts balanced even, and didn't know that I owed the Bank until my overdraft was advertised in the Adair County News, and want the people to know that this is paid, and would have paid this long ago if I had known I owed it.

Respectfully,

J. T. Brockman.
Joppa, Ky.

I find the above statement to be correct.

For the benefit of the Glasgow Times we wish to state that "Old Slop," the colored man, mentioned in the Times of last week, is a native of Columbia. He went to Mexico with the man who was at that time, 1847, his master, Capt. Ham Owen, and was his servant from the time a company left Columbia for the Mexican War until it returned. He is 89 years old. He was not a soldier and was carried to Mexico for no other purpose but to wait upon Capt. Owen. He was known here as "Boots" Owen, though his first name is George. During the civil war he had some trouble in this place with Col. Ed Butler, who shot and wounded him. Soon after the wounds healed, "Boots" left Columbia, going to Glasgow where he has since lived. "Squire John Eubank, who was in Capt. Owen's company, he becoming the Captain of same after the death of Capt. Jack Squires, says he has no recollection of Boots being sworn into the service, and he was with him all the time he was in Mexico.

The Rock Crusher purchased by the Board of Trustees, in town of Columbia, arrived the middle of last week. Monday afternoon the Board met and located on the farm where there are rock in abundance. We take it that the crushing will commence soon.

Bishop Matthews, of the United Brethren Church, will preach at the Court-house next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. This appointment is made in the afternoon to avoid conflicting with the appointments for school addresses in the forenoon. Every body cordially invited.

New potatoes, new beans, new peas, and new tomatoes were on the bill of fare at the home of Mr. J. O. Russell the first of the week.

Auto Destroyed by Fire.

Last Friday afternoon an International auto, the property of W. R. Myers & Son, this place, was destroyed by fire three miles beyond Campbellsville. The machine had been in Lebanon, as we are informed, several days, undergoing repairs. Mr. Harlan Shaw, who is a chauffeur, went to Lebanon with the view of driving it to Columbia. When he got within three miles of Campbellsville, a man came up from behind and informed him that the machine was on fire. A stop was made and all efforts to extinguish the flames failed, and it was soon consumed. In his efforts to put out the fire Mr. Shaw got badly burned about his face and parts of his body. All of Mr. Myers' machines are insured, and our understanding is, that upon the one destroyed, there is a policy for $800.

The cause of the fire was the explosion of gasoline.

Be in Columbia this Wednesday afternoon and evening. The big Texas show will give two exhibitions.

Wedding Announced.

About four weeks ago, Rev. O. P. Bush, pastor of the Baptist Church, this place, was called to Green county, to marry a couple. When he returned to Columbia he declined to give the names of the contracting parties, saying that he was under promise not to divulge. The parties guarded their secret well until the 2d of this month when the announcement was made, Mr. W. C. Penick and Miss Ethel Thompson were a wedded couple. On the day the announcement was made the couple went to the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Bettie Penick, of Miami, where they will reside for the present.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

The following musical programs will be rendered during the commencement at Lindsey-Wilson next week.

Junior Recital, from the classes of Misses Hewett and Walker, Thursday afternoon, 3:30 p. m.

Died in Texas.

Mr. James Paxton, who was born and reared in Adair county, a son of Col. W. C. Paxton, one of the pioneers of the county, died at Rochester, Texas, a few days ago. He served in the Confederate army, and was about eighty years old at his death. He leaves quite a number of relatives in Adair, being a first cousin to Mr. W. L. and A. J. Stotts. He left his native county with his father's family in 1850.

Lightening Kills a Girl.

We learn from Mr. W. H. Wilson, who was near the scene, that last Friday night, while the storm was raging, lightning struck the dwelling of a man named Shaw, near Leslie, Cumberland county, setting fire to the building, consuming it. All the family escaped except one daughter, who was burned to death.

WANTED—A man to haul logs. Good price, good road.

Dr. J. N. Murrell has just installed an electric engine in his office and is now prepared to do quicker and thorough work than heretofore. Teeth can be cleaned in a few minutes and all other work requiring the use of the engine expedited in a few minutes. It is a smooth running machine and makes scarcely any noise.

All parties owing me on notes or account please call at Gill & Waggener's store and settle, and oblige,
Frank Sinclair.

On the civil docket, for the coming May term of the Adair Circuit Court are 12 equity and 6 common law appearance suits, and on the Commonwealth docket there are 83 misdemeanors and 10 felony prosecutions before the court that stand for trial.

Mr. Jo M. Reed has removed from the Reed homestead to the frame residence, on Water street, formerly occupied by Mr. W. H. Wilson.

Mr. S. W. Beck has removed from Bomar Heights to the Marvin Young property, on Burkesville street.

Circuit court will open at this place next Monday.

The Debate.

There was an interesting debate in the Lindsey-Wilson Chapel last Saturday evening. It drew a large crowd who was well-paid for climbing the hill. The question was: "Resolved, That the United States would be justified, morally and politically in abolishing the Monroe Doctrine."

Affirmative, Marvin Perryman and Earl Williams.

Negative, Sam Duvall and C. F. Allen.

The discussion showed that each one of the debaters had studied the question, and the points made by the respective sides were strongly presented.

The discussion lasted about two hours, and at the conclusion of the last speaker the result was announced by the judges, Mr. W. A. Coffey, Eld. Tobias Huffaker, and Mr. W. T. Ottley in favor of the negative, one voting for the affirmative.

The debaters represented two societies of the school, "The Columbia Debating Society," and "The Frogge Literary Society." The representatives of the C. D. S. were the successful speakers.

If you want to enjoy an afternoon and evening attend the I X L Ranch and Harris Shows which exhibit at Columbia Wednesday the 13th.

Field Day.

Nearly every body in Columbia visited the Lindsey-Wilson campus last Friday afternoon to witness the Field Day exercises. The program was full of interest and many prizes were awarded. The basket ball game, played by girls, created a great deal of enthusiasm, as each side was well-backed with rooters. The high and broad jumping, pole vaulting and racing were all good, and the hill was alive during the entire afternoon. The names of the winners in all contests are published elsewhere in the News.

Teachers' Examination.

The May Examination for teachers' certificates will be held at the Graded School building in Columbia next Friday and Saturday—May 15th and 16th. It is earnestly requested that all applicants be on the grounds by 8:30 a. m., so that the work of the examination may begin by 9 o'clock. We are anxious to give the applicants as much time as possible, so please come as early as you can.

Supt. Adair County Schools.

For Sale.

I have a farm of 60 acres one and a half miles from Town, dwelling, good barn and other out-buildings; two never-failing springs and two good wells—one being sulphur water. Also plenty of timber to run the farm. This farm is in a good neighborhood and located on Stanford road. Price $3,600.
28-21. Frank Sinclair.

Died.

Mr. Robert Miller, who came to this county from near Summershade, Metcalfe county; several years ago, died last Saturday morning at the home of his sister, Mrs. Grasham, who lives a few miles from Columbia. On Tuesday before his death he met with a stroke of paralysis. He was an ex-Union soldier and was about seventy-five years old. The remains were interred at the A. B. Cox grave yard, on the Campbellsville pike. Quite a number of friends attended the burial.

Rev. A. Whitten, pastor of the United Brethren church, this place, attended the United Congress of said church, Dayton, Ohio, last week. He visited the publishing house and book concern of said organization and in his judgment there is no other publishing house that surpasses it. He also visited the Auterbin home located on 4,005 acres of ground, near the city of Dayton. This home is used for superannuated ministers, widows and orphans, and is one of the best managed institutions of its character in this country.

The commencement sermons to be delivered in this place, next Sunday forenoon, will draw large audiences. Dr. Foote, of Louisville, will be at the Methodist Church, and Eld. Z. T. Williams at the Christian Church. The former will speak to the pupils of the Lindsey-Wilson, the latter to those of the Graded School.

Mr. John Thurman, who lives in the Breeding country, finished planting corn last Saturday week. Taking the season into consideration, Mr. Thurman is an early bird, so to speak.

While absent from home last week, Mr. J. O. Russell purchased a Hudson six cylinder forty horse power automobile, and it is now at his residence.

Judge Evans Rejects Taylor County's Petition.

Judge Walter Evans overruled a motion on the part of Taylor county, in the Federal Court to amend the mandamus which prevents that county from levying any tax for local purposes unless it collects a tax to pay the judgment on the railroad bonds issued by the county years ago.

The county sought permission to levy a tax for school purposes, but Judge Evans held that this cannot be done and that the county must take care of the judgment or abstain from collecting any taxes for local purposes.

Railroad meeting Monday night.

Wants a Commission.

Mr. Basil Duke Edwards, a Kentuckian and kinsman of Mr. N. M. Tutt, of this place, now with headquarters in Alaska as 2nd Lieutenant, 30th U. S. Infantry, has addressed a letter to the Governor of this State asking that he be appointed a Major of Kentucky Volunteers and be assigned to service in the approaching conflict between this country and Mexico. He recites the facts that he comes from a lineage that has displayed valor in all the troubles through which this country has experienced. Being a graduate of West Point, with experience as Lieutenant in the 13th U. S. Infantry and his familiarity with the Spanish language which he speaks and writes gives him special fitness. Again his intense desire to render service in this particular instance also should strongly recommend him and we trust his request will be granted. He has many relatives in this section of the State who would be glad to see him appointed.

With trains running into Columbia this entire section would soon be a lively business community.

Fire at Monticello.

A Dispatch from Monticello says: Fire here last night did damage amounting to about $15,000. The Christian Church was destroyed, causing a loss of $3,000, with $5,000 insurance, while the freight house of T. J. Alexander, his barn and two work mules were burned. Mr. Alexander's loss is about $8,000, with small insurance.

28-21.

Dropped Dead.

Last Wednesday morning Mr. W. C. Wolford, a former Magistrate of Adair county, dropped dead at his late home on Casey Creek. The deceased was seventy-one years old and two days when the end came. He was a nephew of the late General Frank L. Wolford and was a good citizen, well known to the people in the eastern portion of this county. When the Civil war broke out he espoused the cause of the Union, entered the Federal army, serving in the 13th Kentucky Infantry, Capt. O. B. Patteson Company. His passing leaves only eight of said company in Adair county, to-wit: John Campbell, Dr. Wm. Blair, Zachary, Josh Butler, Wm. Butler, Geo. J. Hurt, Wm. H. Conover and J. K. P. Conover.

A great many friends and relatives attended the funeral of Squire Wolford and he will be greatly missed in the neighborhood where he so long lived.

President Wilson and Mexico.

The sensible thinking people of this country endorse President Wilson's treatment of the trouble with Mexico, or more correctly speaking, his treatment of the Huerta government. This policy is clearly war if necessary but peace if possible with honor. The United States has no caucus belli with the Mexican people and we can hope for nothing by getting in trouble with them. There could come no credit to the United States in whipping so weak a people.

The Huerta Government has outrageously insulted the United States by incident after incident for the purpose of bringing on war with the United States. As far as it is concerned their purpose has been accomplished. By capturing Vera Cruz and blockading the other points of Mexico the United States has placed the Federals in the position that they can neither get supplies of war nor money from the outside. While this has been done, not to help Gen. Villa and his army, the results are the same as if that had been the United States. We have made it just that much easier for Gen. Villa's army to march into the City of Mexico and capture Huerta and do just what they please with him. Our possession of the ports of Mexico makes us, as far as the end of the Huerta regime is concerned, an ally of Villa.

It is evidently the policy of President Wilson, in spite of the jingoes in this country, not to wage a war of conquest in Mexico, but to hold the ports and let Huerta and Villa fight it out. There will be no act of further aggression upon the part of the United States unless there is further provocation.

But in preparation for any emergency that may arise, which might compel our troops to march into Mexico, every step will be taken by President Wilson to be ready at a moment's notice. We have a President who will uphold the honor of the Nation at any cost, but who will not plunge the nation into any war which can be avoided. In the time of peril it is the time for coolness. It is time to stand behind the President and hold up his hands and not to criticize and embarrass him.—E-Town News.

These Men Have Money.

Perhaps no one hates the sight of money more than the croupiers at Monte Carlo, through whose hands thousands of dollars pass every day.

It is not everyone who can be a croupier. Fingering and counting money at the Casino requires special training, and, accordingly, there is a school of croupiers in Monaco. Here there are tables similar to those used in the gambling-rooms, and each "scholar" is taught by a "master" how to become a croupier.

The "master" and the "scholar" personate players, while one "scholar" takes the part of a croupier. The money used is sham, metal discs being substituted for coins and slips of paper for bank-notes. Within a given time the croupier-scholar must calculate and pay out the winning stakes. He has to learn how to pitch money from one end of the table to a precise spot at the other end, and a good many other things.

When a "scholar" is passed as perfect he enters the service of the Casino under an agreement which stipulates that he can be dismissed at a moment's notice without any reason being given him.

Health Factor in Success.

The largest factor contributing to a man's success is undoubtedly health. It has been observed that a man is seldom sick when his bowels are regular—he is never well when they are constipated. For constipation you will find nothing quite so good as Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. They are sold by Paull Drug Co. Ad.

Arrangement of Ballot.

With the race for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator made up with Gov. James B. McCreary, Congressman Stanley and former Gov. J. C. W. Beckham as the starters in the August primary, it is interesting to note that if all three go to the post the arrangement of names on the ballot will be different in the various congressional districts. Under the provisions of the State primary law the names are to appear in alphabetical order in the First district and alternate in each succeeding numerical district. Under this arrangement the formation will be as follows: Beckham, first, McCreary second and Stanley third in the First, Fourth, Seventh and Tenth districts; McCreary first Stanley second and Beckham third in the Second, Fifth Eighth and Eleventh districts; Stanley first, Beckham second and McCreary third in the Third, Sixth and Ninth districts.—Louisville Times.

Costly Raiment,

Shortly before his death the marquis of Anglesea bought three dozen handkerchiefs for which he paid $60 a dozen. They had his crest worked in human hair in the corners.

It is interesting to know that the late Duc d'Albe, uncle of the ex-Empress Eugenie, was in the habit of ordering 12 dozen handkerchiefs at a time, for which he paid $100 a dozen.

Perhaps the most expensive handkerchief in existence is in the possession of the Italian royal family. It took three women more than five years to make it and is valued at $30,000.

One of the Bulgarian princes has the peculiar hobby of collecting dressing gowns. His wardrobe contains an enormous number of these articles of apparel many of which are worth $500 each. Some time ago he had a dressing gown specially made for him in Paris for which he paid $600.

The gaekwar of Baroda has a coat, woven of gold and embroidered with diamonds and rubies, which cost $125,000; the emir of Scindia possesses a coat of brilliant scarlet and a cap of black and gold studded with gems which are worth over $150,000; while the maharajah of Patiala spent nearly $200,000 on a garb of purple satin and a turban thick with pearls diamonds and emeralds.

The Increase in Farm Wages.

The Department of Agriculture says that the wages of farm labor have increased about 25 per cent. in the last four years and 36 per cent. since 1902. This is good news. Until agriculture is able to pay as much for the same labor as other industries pays, it is evident that something is radically wrong—either farmers are not as efficient as employers in other lines of business or other industries are favored at the expense of agriculture. Farm wages have in the past been lower than wages for equal work in any other line of employment, and it is a healthy sign of progress when labor on the farm commands more money. With an increase in wages, however, should go an increase in efficiency. Whether there has been such increase is an open question. Many farmers believe that farm labor of today is less efficient and trustworthy than that of five or ten years ago. If this is the case, the rise in wages will soon reduce the profits of the employing farmer to the point that will prevent any further increase in wages. Good pay must be based on good work.

How Cattle Shrink.

In the current issue of Farm and Fireside appear the following government figures on cattle shrinkage:

"After weighing 19,000 cattle in 265 shipments, government experts have concluded that the normal shrinkage of cattle in shipment is from three to six per cent. There are exceptions to this rule, and no one can say beforehand just how much cattle will shrink in going to the market. It depends on the treatment of the cattle, the length of time they are held without food or water, the nature of their feed before loading, the character of the trip to market, the distance shipped, and the time of arrival.

"The shrinkage of the first twenty-four hours is greater for any subsequent twenty-four hours. Steers generally shrink a little less than cows of the same weight. Fed cattle and range cattle shrink about equally. There is no way to prevent shrinkage, but careful handling and good feeding will keep it within reasonable bounds.

"One of the chief causes of heavy shrinkage is too severe drive to the loading pen, especially during hot weather."

Mercer Boy's Exciting Time.

News comes from Harrodsburg that Col. E. H. Gaither, an attorney of that city has received a message from Mexico giving the details of an exciting experience of his son, Ike Gaither, who with two brothers, Edgar and Morton and an uncle, George Gaither, are in Mexico.

Ike Gaither was located near Joppa, and about a year ago a valuable saddle mare was stolen from him by a band of Mexicans and young Gaither declared he would kill any Mexican he caught riding her. When the recent hostilities broke out, Gaither made his way to Vera Cruz just as the Americans were landing. He joined them and in the fight that followed, he observed a Mexican soldier riding the mare that had been stolen from him and promptly shot and killed him and recovered the animal.

Edgar Gaither, who is a mining engineer, was at Guanajuata and Morton was at San Luis Potosi and George Gaither was in Mexico when the trouble broke out and the two last named brothers got into Mexico City with their uncle and it is hoped all got out safely.

Col. Gaither, his father, is a Spanish War veteran. Previous to that he commanded the State troops at Frankfort during the Goebel-Taylor contest at Frankfort and also had charge of the State troops in Harlan and Perry counties to squelch the feudists. Edgar B. Gaither, father of Col. E. H. Gaither was a Colonel in the Mexican War, and his company was the first to enter Mexico City in 1848. He was three times voted the thanks of Congress for his gallant conduct.

Edgar B. Gaither was born and reared in Columbia, and the company he carried to Mexico in 1847 was made up in Adair county.

"At Half-Mast."

Did you ever stop to think of the meaning of flying flags at "half-mast" when any prominent person connected with the government dies?

Ever since flags were used in war it has been the custom to have the flag of the superior or conquering nation above that of the inferior or vanquished. When an army found itself hopelessly beaten, it hauled its flag down far enough for the flag of the victors to be placed above it on the same pole. This was a token not only of submission, but of respect.

In those days, when a famous soldier died, flags were lowered out of respect to his memory. The custom long ago passed from purely military usage to public life of all kinds, the flag flying at half-mast being a sign that the dead man was worthy of universal respect. The space left above it for the flag of the great conqueror of all—the angel of death.

A New View of the Silo Question.

Missouri farmers, as well as those in Kentucky, are beginning to realize the advantage of feeding from silos. The Fulton, Mo., Gazette quotes one as saying: "A silo full of good, rich, juicy feed makes me think of a great big jar of preserves, put up when fruit is fresh and full of flavor. When a mother unscrews the top of a big jar of peach preserves and gives a boy all he wants of it, it makes him feel just like I imagine a hungry steer feels when the lid is lifted from the silo and that good preserved corn is dished out into a feed trough. In fact, a silo filled with the products of the cornfield, sealed up and held for winter, is nothing but a big jar of preserves.

"Have you ever stopped to think what a waste there is to the field of corn that is not put in the silo—how the juices that fill shuck, blades and stalk count for nothing in particular, because of the heat, rain and exposure to the elements? When the corn is cut up and canned and then fed as ensilage, stock get all the substance there is in it—sap, stalk, blades, shucks, cobs and grain. Nothing is lost except the roots and the stubble. Makes me think of the saying that a modern packing house uses all of a pig except his squeal.

"Not only that" look what it means to get the crop in shape to feed—out of the field and into good shelter—before winter weather comes on. I don't know of anything a farmer can invest in that will pay him better. If every farm in the county had a silo and if every mile of road was dragged regularly, the Kingdom would be almost an earthly paradise. Just get one of those big jars, fill it full of chopped, green corn, and let it sweat and sweeten, and if it isn't like opening a jar of peach preserves to open it when green stuff is out of season, then I don't know how to make comparisons. The beauty of it, is it answers the purpose of preserves and several other good things."

Accidental Inventions.

It is interesting to note some of the wonderful things that have been invented purely by accident.

An alchemist, experimenting in earthen for the making of crucibles, found that he had invented porcelain. A watch maker's apprentice, holding a spectacle glass between his thumb and forefinger, noticed that through it the neighboring buildings appeared larger, and thus he discovered the adaptability of the lens of the telescope.

A Nuernberg glasscutter, by accident one day, dropped a little aqua fortis upon his spectacles. He found that it corroded and softened the glass, and he conceived the idea of etching. He drew figures upon the glass with varnish, applied the fluid and cut away the glass about the drawing. When he removed the varnish the figures appeared, raised on a dark ground.

The process of whitening sugar was never known until a hen walked through a clay puddle and then strayed into a sugar house. Her tracks were left in the piles of sugar and when it was noticed that the spots where she had stepped were whiter than the rest, the first step in the process of bleaching sugar with clay was taken.

The wife of an English paper-maker one day dropped a blue bag into a vat of pulp. When the workmen saw the colored paper, they were astonished, and their employer was so angry at the mischance that his wife did not dare to confess her part in bringing it about. The paper was stored for years as a damaged lot, and finally the manufacturer sent it to his agent in London, and told him to try to get rid of it. Fashion at once marked it for her own. It was rapidly sold at a high price, and the manufacturers found it difficult to supply the demand for colored paper.

Thus Dame Fortune looks out for her children and when they are slow in learning useful seeing useful secrets and possibilities, drops a word of advice in their way so plain that they can not choose but read it.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

FOR JUDGE OF COURT OF APPEALS.

WE are authorized to announce ROLLIN HURT a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, in the Third district, subject to the action of the Democratic voters, expressed at the August primary.

Hon. Rollin H. Hurt, Democratic candidate for Appellate Judge in this the Third district, and who has been mixing with people who reside in it for the past two weeks, has been most cordially received at every point, and from reports coming to this town, there is not a doubt but he is largely in the race, his friends claiming that he has already got his fight won. Mr. Hurt is one of the learned lawyers of this Commonwealth, his reputation as an attorney being known not only over this Appellate district, but in many other parts of the State. He looks like a Judge, he has the carriage of a Judge, and at this time there is scarcely a doubt but he will be nominated by the Democrats for the position he seeks at the August primary. While his canvass has been very satisfactory, his strength growing day by day, his friends must not conclude that his popularity is sure to bring success, lose interest, and fail to be at the polls on the day of the primary. There are eight or ten counties in this part of the State who are very much interested in Mr. Hurt's race, but his friends will do him no good on that day unless they go to the polls and vote for him. Judge Hobson, who is Mr. Hurt's opponent, will bend every energy to get out his full strength in the counties he expects to carry, hence the importance of Mr. Hurt's friends, one and all, being at the polls on the day of the primary. There are about 1,600 Democratic voters in Adair and every one of them should go to the election, it being understood that the county is solidly for the home man. It is true that it is nearly three months until the primary, but there are twenty-three counties in the district, and of course some of them can not be closely canvassed, hence the necessity of all the home counties voting solidly in the contest. Work day and night as though you believed Mr. Hurt in danger. A canvass thus conducted invariably meets with success.

Judge J. P. Hobson would like to have that twenty-three ounce lemon raised in Columbia to hand to a citizen of that town, Hon. Rollin Hurt, who is running against him for the Court of Appeals. —Elizabethtown News.

Judge Hobson will be so badly paralyzed on the day of the primary that he could not hold a lemon in his hand.

The meeting in the court house last Friday evening was well attended considering the weather, and sufficient interest was manifested to warrant a call for another meeting to be held next Monday evening at 7:30. A large number of Adair county citizens see and realize the importance and far reaching effects of building a railroad to Columbia. Many realize the fact that if this is ever accomplished that we must do a substantial part of it, while some, however, appear indifferent, and willing for conditions to remain as they are. To those who want a railroad, who would like to share in the development of this section and enjoy expanding values and business opportunities, we merely say that the time is here for action. If the road is built, we must build it. The hope that some railroad company or outside capital will come with pull-mans to convey the people of this county over steel rails, can not longer be indulged, and the many who really desire a railroad should now be willing to aid in its building. The people of this town and county can build the road without injury to any one. The L. & N. will render valuable assistance in this matter, so much so that it would be a tremendous blunder if we fail to accept the proffered help and refuse to build the road. If we let this opportunity pass there will be no road; if we all pull together it will be built. The importance of your presence next Monday night is apparent, and the interest of the people will aid or hinder the movement, as it may be manifested. The News has accepted every movement, and has given its aid as best it could, that pointed to the building of a railroad, but there has never been a proposition made half so easy for the people of this county to get a road as we now have, and we hope this chance will not be allowed to pass without an honest effort to get it.

A dispatch from Washington says, Indications grow stronger hourly that the Mexican trouble will break out afresh and Kentucky troops may be called on at any time. The War Department has called up Governors of the big Eastern States and asked them how soon they could put troops in the field and how many. At the department every thing is being rushed in an effort to have things in readiness for a moment's notice.

Editor News:

I thank you very much for your kindly references to me in your local columns last week, and especially as to my record as a Confederate soldier. I must confess that I am proud of that record and if you think it would not give offense to some of my friends who were on the other side, I will send you an article from Ed Porter Thompson's history of the Orphan Brigade in which your humble correspondent is favorably mentioned. The reference to me in that article was written without my knowledge or consent, and consequently I appreciate it all the more. Send—Ed.

I agree fully with your editorial on the Mexican situation. It is better to avoid war if it can be done honorably. The loss of the lives of the noble young men that have already been sacrificed is worth more than all the Mexican Greasers in that Priest-ridden country.

I think you are also correct when you say that those who are clamoring for war and finding fault with President Wilson's policy are not hunting for the enrolling officer. My observation in the Confederate service leads me to agree with you.

There was in every regiment individuals, (I liked to have said men,) when we were in winter quarters who were going to annihilate the Federal army as soon as the spring campaign opened, but when that time came and we were ordered to cook 3 days rations and be prepared to move at any moment, these same individuals who wore pants with suspenders on them and who looked like men, would be suddenly stricken with some terrible disease and so completely would they play the sick man that the doctors were deceived. They were sent to the hospital and that was the last you would see of them until we were in winter quarters again. Their tribe was few, I am glad to say. Ask Gaither Bryant if he ever saw any of that class.

I am not given to finding fault with newspaper correspondents, but I cannot agree with one of your Texas men when he says "that Texas is the best State in the Union." He certainly has never been in South Carolina or he never would have been guilty of such an extravagant expression. If he does not modify it—say one of the best, that would satisfy us, but if he will not then for the honor of South Carolina I shall have Gov. Cole L. Blease make a requisition on the Governor of Texas and bring him down here and try him for slander. I hate to seem to be hard on my brother Kentuckian, but South Carolina can never stand any thing like that. I shall not take action until I give him time to modify his expression.

What has become of the railroad boom Columbia was on some time ago? Has it died a natural death? I hope the road will be built, and that soon. I want to visit the dear old town again before I am gathered to my Father, and I want to ride from Campbellsville or some other R. R. point to Columbia on the train. With best wishes I am

Respectfully,
George Heck Burton.

Ozark.

Mr. Polley and family left Monday for Illinois, where they expect to reside for a while. They did not sell their home here. So if they should not like Illinois they have their home to return to.

Mr. John White rented Mr. Jo Kearnes' property and moved to same last week. John has a nice home of his own, we don't know the cause of his moving.

The wife of James Bryant, who lives beyond Craycraft, died last Friday. She had gripe and diseases incident to old age. Her husband is very feeble. He is a brother of Messrs. John, Jasper, T. J., Edmon, and Mrs. Martha A. Bryant, of this place.

Old Uncle Perkins Bryant, of Sano, died one day last week.

Mr. Meldrom Scholl is making a crop on Mrs. Omeria Jeffries' farm. Meldrom is a hustler and strictly honest and always gives satisfaction to his employers.

Miss Emma L. McKinley has been quite sick. She is some better now.

Mrs. Mariah Powell and daughter entertained the following last Thursday: Mrs. Z. T. Young and little grand son, Mrs. James Combest and son and Mrs. Elmore Bryant and baby.

Mr. Kent Bryant took dinner at the home of Mr. Theodore Powell last Sunday.

Miss Mary Lee Turpen, who has spent several weeks in Columbia, returned home last Sunday.

Miss Cary Cabell, of Dunnville, is visiting her aunts, Mrs. Milton Wolford and Mr. John White and family.

This week we are called upon to chronicle the death of Mrs. Rachel Montgomery, widow of Zach Montgomery, which occurred at Liberty last Saturday. The remains were brought to this place and buried beside her husband and children on their old home place. Mrs. Montgomery was 84 years and 8 months old. She had been afflicted perhaps more than thirty years, but with the very best care and attention. She was well-known to every body in this community, having spent all of her life here until a few years ago after the death of her husband, she broke up house-keeping, and has since made her home with her son, Eld. Joe Montgomery and daughter, Mrs. Mollie Portman, of Liberty. Three sons Elijah, Adair and Fields and one daughter, Mrs. H. O. Murrell, lives in Oklahoma, one daughter, Mrs. V. M. Epperson, of Montpelier, this county. She possessed a sunny disposition and many noble traits of Christian character.

Eld. Wyatt Montgomery, of Moreland, came down to attend the burial of his aunt, Mrs. Rachel Montgomery.

W. G. Roy bought a milk cow from W. J. Gabbert for $60.00, and sold one to John White for $75.00.

Lander Bryant sold N. A. McKinley one mare for $80.00.

Dunnville.

Farmers are getting ready to plant corn. Several have little patches planted for early feeding, as corn is selling at $5 per barrel, and not an over supply of it at that price. There is very good indication of it going to $6 per barrel. Wonder what Bro. Hadley thinks of $6 corn? I guess something unspeakable though.

L. F. Dickinson and W. D. Cunningham, two of our best young men, have returned home from Bowling Green on account of the measles. They will soon be able to be out again.

I earnestly advise every one to avoid meeting any of the ladies of this community, as they are almost sure to be an agent for some washing machine, or making up an order for some dish company. Some of the men are also in the same business. I hope their tribe will speedily decrease.

Rev C. C. Baker will preach at Luttrell's Creek schoolhouse Sunday night. We are certainly glad to welcome him back, for we need a preacher as bad as any place that I know of. I am sorry to say that all the boys that are not large enough to court put in their time on Sunday digging seng, fishing and smoking cigarettes, learning to swear, etc. This I personally know to be true.

O. L. Ellis has been repairing his dwelling house.

It is reported on very good authority that Mr. Godbey will start an automobile in a short time between this place and McKinney. It is certainly needed and Mr. Godbey will have the best wishes and support of every progressive citizen of this community.

The Casey county Fiscal Court has at last agreed to build a bridge across the river at Dunnville. This step should have been taken 25 years ago. But it wasn't, because the people in this section are true Kentuckians. We have got to know that we need a thing and need it badly before we reach out and take it.

J. F. Pelley and wife were visiting Mr. Jeff Wilkerson and family last Saturday and Sunday.

Jo Thomas and Virgil Rubarts are doing a very good business in the poultry and egg trade.

Most of the young toughs are now busily engaged in dodging the Sheriff. He will get them sooner or later. So what is the use of dodging.

The Casey County News immediately after last November election charged that the buying and selling of votes was practiced openly at the Court-house in Liberty. This is the second Circuit Court that has met since then, yet I have heard of no investigation being made in regard to the matter. No wonder there is red flag parades, I. W. W. anarchists and others equally as bad that are waiting to destroy our free system of Government when those in power are there because of the corrupting influences which they exercise without regard to God or their own fellowmen. I, for one, would like for the "News" charges to be investigated and for the guilty ones to be punished as they richly deserve.

Craycraft.

The farmers of this community are very busy planting corn.

The singing at Shiloh the first Sunday afternoon was quite a success. There will be another one on the third Sunday afternoon in May in the new books—Glorious Refrain.

Our Sunday School is progressing nicely with Mr. J. A. Richardson as Superintendent.

Mr. G. T. Bryant sold one sheep to George Hunn for $5.00.

There will be meeting at Oak Grove the third Sunday in this month.

Mr. G. L. Blair had a log-rolling last Monday afternoon.

The farmers of this community are preparing to put out a large tobacco crop this year.

Bro. Wyatt Montgomery preached a very interesting sermon at Shiloh last Sunday evening.

Sano.

Corn planting is the order of the day in this section. Some farmers are done planting.

Mr. Isaac Roberts returned

"JOE" Cleveland Bay

This celebrated Stallion will make the season of 1914 at Will Johnson's barn, 4 1/2 miles south of Columbia and 1 1/2 miles West of Gadberry, on Pettits Fork Creek, and will serve mares at $6.00 to insure a living colt. He has proven to be a good breeder.

Joe is a dark bay, 16 hands high, heavy built, good style, has the best of eyes, feet and legs and in fact a perfect model in every respect. He is the best and quietest work horse I ever seen, and a fine driver for women with perfect safety, so he needs no further introduction.

Money due when colt is foaled. All care taken to prevent accidents, but not responsible should any occur.

We will also stand a good 7 year old Jack at same place on same conditions as horse, at the low fee of $5.00.

This Jack is black with mealy points, 14 hands high, heavy built, good style and has proven himself a good breeder.

We thank the people for their past favors and solicit their future ones. Call and see our stock if interested. Phone Will Johnson.

Johnson Bros.

He is dying hard, but he is dying, and is now in the last throes of his death struggle.

Meanwhile, he is to the men who surround him like a wild hyena backed up against the wall and surrounded by foes. No one dares to oppose him nor reason with him. He distrusts every one, even his son, Jore. He knows that the capital is honeycombed with treason, that every one of the mad wolves whose pack he had led is ready to spring at his throat.

The flower of his army has been sent against Carranza and Villa in the north. In the capital he is practically unprotected and only his most wonderful power to command keeps him where he is. Men who hate him receive their orders and obey through fear. They are afraid to attempt to shoot him or to stab him. His very look compels obedience.

In his capital General Huerta has a garrison composed of the most part by children, many of them not more than ten years old and scarcely strong enough to carry a rifle. These children are helping him hold his power.

No one believes that his power can continue but little longer. Every one knows that he is now tottering to his fall.

This morning no one knows when or how that fall will come—a bullet from his automatic revolver shall crush through his brain or if he will abdicate.

Most Prompt and Effectual for Bad colds.

When you have a bad cold you want a remedy that will not only give relief but effect a prompt and permanent cure, a remedy that is pleasant to take a remedy that contains nothing injurious. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets all these requirements. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions and restores the system to a healthy condition. This remedy has a world wide sale and use, and can always be depended upon. Sold by Paull Drug Co. Ad.

What's The Matter With Your Baby?

The young mother—and many an old one, too—is often puzzled to know the cause of her child's ill nature. The loudness of its crying does not necessarily indicate the seriousness of its trouble. It may have nothing more the matter with it than a headache or a feeling of general dullness. It cannot, of course, describe its feelings, but as a preliminary measure you are safe in trying a mild laxative.

Nine times out of ten, you will find it is all the child needs, for its restlessness and peevishness are perhaps due to obstruction of the bowels, and once that has been remedied the headache, the sluggishness and the many other evidences of constipation and indigestion will quickly disappear.

Don't give the little one salts, cathartic pills or nasty waters, for these will act as purgatives, and they are too strong for a child. In the families of Mrs. M. S. Adams, Auburn, Ky., and Mrs. L. M. Boyce, Tip Top, Ky., the only laxative given is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It has been found to answer most perfectly all the purposes of a laxative, and its very mildness and freedom from griping recommend it especially for the use of children, women, and old folks generally—people who need a gentle bowel stimulant. Thousands of American families have been enthusiastic about it for more than a quarter of a century.

Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 405 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

We would be pleased to send the Daily State Journal, Frankfort, from now until the first of April for 50 cents. Or better still we will furnish the Adair County News, one year and the Daily State Journal until April last for $1.25. If you want to keep in touch with the doings at Frankfort while the Legislature is in session, you should have the State Journal.

STOMACH TROUBLE FOR FIVE YEARS

Majority of Friends Thought Mr. Hughes Would Die, But One Helped Him to Recovery.

Pomeroyton, Ky.—In interesting advice from this place, Mr. A. J. Hughes writes as follows: "I was down with stomach trouble for five (5) years, and would have sick headache so bad, at times, that I thought surely I would die."

I tried different treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good.

I got so bad, I could not eat or sleep, and all my friends, except one, thought I would die. He advised me to try Thedford's Black-Draught, and quit taking other medicines. I decided to take his advice, although I did not have any confidence in it.

I have now been taking Black-Draught for three months, and it has cured me—haven't had those awful sick headaches since I began using it.

I am so thankful for what Black-Draught has done for me."

Thedford's Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for derangements of the stomach and liver. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients, and acts gently, yet surely. It can be freely used by young and old, and should be kept in every family chest.

Beginning of Villa's Career as an Outlaw.

At the death of his father, Francisco, or Pancho, was left in charge of the Villa ranch in the State of Chihuahua and with it assumed the responsibility of his mother and a young sister, the latter a Mexican beauty of coquettish tendencies. Becoming enamored of the county sheriff of the city of Chihuahua, the girl eloped with him. Forgetful of the marriage ceremony the couple fled to the mountains. The enraged Pancho, with an escort of cowboys and a priest, pursued the runaways. Over-taking them, he forced matrimony upon the unwilling sheriff, then handing him a shovel, commanded his brother-in-law to dig a grave. That horrid task completed, Pancho shot down the terrified bridegroom and rolled his body into the pit.

The incident was lurid enough to startle authorities hardened to crime and lawlessness, and it was necessary for the murderer effectually to absent himself from the justice that was soon on his trail. With that escape began his life of bandit and marauder. For fifteen years he roamed the Durango and Chihuahua Sierras. Porfirio Diaz had bid $20,000 for his head and the inspired rurales tracked him from hiding-place to hiding-place. Villa himself told me much of this period. "I have had forty-eight encounters with the rurales and killed thirty-seven of my enemies," said he. "I was wounded nine times, but never seriously."—From Pancho Villa, Man and Soldier, by N. C. Adossides, In the American Review of Reviews for May.

The Return of a Nuisance

With the arrival of spring weather comes the bands of wandering gypsies who pervade this part of the country under the guise of horse traders. They have wintered in the south, but with the coming of spring return to their summer haunts. One band consisting of about a dozen wagons, go from one county court to the other, and are a source of annoyance all along the route they travel. The men trade horses, and do almost anything, except work, while the women under the guise of telling fortunes, earn the living for the entire outfit by begging or stealing.

Several members of these wandering bands have been before the local courts upon grave charges, and should their nefarious practices be resumed, they should be given an urgent invitation to leave this part of the country.—E. Town News.

Obituary.

Uncle John Neagles died at his home, near this place, the 23rd, and was buried the 24th, at Thurlow. His funeral was preached by brother Waller Pierce from the 14th chapter of John. Uncle John leaves a large family and a host of friends to mourn his loss.

Uncle John was near 74 years old. He had always been a hearty, stout man up to a short time ago when he took pneumonia and heart trouble and they soon passed the old man over the river.

Uncle John was married twice. His first wife was Miss Betty Eads, whose father was born without ears. He was the grand father of John A. Neagles, of Camp Knox. He was left with 9 children by his first wife.

His second wife was the widow of Aaron Martin, a daughter of Mr. Bryce Edwards. There was born to them 5 children, of which 3 are living. He was the grand father of 52 children and the great grand father of 8 children.

Uncle John left his wife in a very good condition to live as his children are all grown.

Child Cross? Feverish? Sick?

A cross, peevish, listless child, with coated tongue, pale, doesn't sleep; eats sometimes very little, then again ravenously; stomach sour; breath fetid; pains in stomach, with diarrhea; grinds teeth while asleep, and starts up with terror—all suggest a Worm Killer—something that expels worms, and almost every child has them. Kickapoo Worm Killer is needed. Get a box to-day. Start at once. You won't have to coax, as Kickapoo Worm Killer is a candy confection. Expels the worms, the cause of your child's trouble. 25c. The Perfect Husband.

One of the great Eastern newspapers is conducting a contest, the prize to be awarded to the one who can come nearest to describing the perfect husband. It would not seem difficult to one who does as follows:

Hands his salary envelope intact to his wife.

Goes to bed every night in the year at 9 o'clock.

Gets up at 6 o'clock and goes to work at seven.

Accepts an allowance of 60 cents a week from his wife for car fare.

Serves the guests at the table and takes no part in the conversation.

Does all the carpenter work around the house.

Takes care of the furnace and beats the rugs.

Takes care of the canaries and feeds the goldfish.

Has no opinion of any sort on any subject.

Smokes one cigar a day out in the woodshed.

Goes to the grand opera which he doesn't like, and stays away from shows that he does like.

Lets his wife buy all of his clothing and neckties.

Keep Bowel Movement Regular.

Dr. King's New Life Pills keeps stomach, liver and kidneys in healthy condition. Rid. the body of poisons and waste. Improve your complexion by flushing the liver and kidneys. Refugee Story at Vera Cruz.

Vera Cruz, May 5.—Many American refugees continue to arrive from the capital and they bring divergent stories of the situation there. Arrangements are being made to-day to send a naval vessel to Puerto, Mexico, to meet a large number of refugees due there Tuesday morning.

To-day's arrival from Mexico City report a growing undercurrent of feeling against the Huerta regime and tell of a rumor of rupture between Huerta and Gen. Blanquet, minister of war. It was the latter with the crack Twenty-ninth regiment that took the military coup which resulted in the downfall of President Francisco I. Madero.

Some of the returning Americans who claim to have information from those close to Huerta, declare he is reiterating to confidants that he will never resign, but talks of the possibilities of coup against him. Several of the American business men say the foreign diplomatic representatives counseled them not to leave the capital; that there was no necessity to do so, as there was practically no danger and the whole situation would be clarified soon.

The refugees generally expressed disappointment at the lack of any indications of an advance of the Americans on the capital. They say the best class of Mexicans share this view.

There is speculation in official circles regarding the disposition of the customs revenues of this port, said to aggregate over a million dollars in gold a month. The Federal officers who fled inland took important papers from the custom house files and it is difficult for the American officials to clear up business in the warehouses or to ascertain the exact distribution of that revenue. Mexican customs receipts are pledged in part as security for the old national loan and the remainder was pledged by Huerta for the recent French loan.

For the present all the customs receipts will be impounded to await instructions from Washington. Several cargoes have been unloading during the last few days and more ships are reported as cleared for this port from the United States and Europe so that the accumulated receipts will soon reach a considerable amount.

The demand for fractional American currency was suddenly increased to-day when H. M. Robinson, superintendent of the United States railway mail service, who has taken charge of the post office, placed American postage stamps on the market and stipulated that they must be paid for in American money.

mon, which was very interesting, Mr. Duke, of the Lone Star State, held the audience almost spell bound for two hours, which was certainly interesting. At the noon hour there was spread a bountiful repast sufficient to feed as many more as were present, which is characteristic of the good ladies of our community. After the noon hour, our Bro. Mr. Duke addressed the young men, which I wish every man of the county had been present. The day will long be remembered by every one present.

We are glad to note that we were agreeably surprised to meet our old friend and kinsman, John Grissom, of Iowa, who has been gone from this section thirty-four years, and he is still the same big hearted all around good fellow, John Grissom. We were certainly glad to shake his hand in the flesh and hear him tell of by gone days and his experiences since he left old Adair. And the best of all to tell of our fathers and mothers for he is one of the Grissoms who never forgets anything and can tell past events just as if they had happened yesterday. We certainly enjoyed his company.

Columbia Stock Farm

The above picture is a natural photograph of JUDAS the famous Purcheron Stallion. He will make the season of 1914, at my barn, one and one-half miles east of Columbia, on the Somerset road, for the sum of $10.00 to insure a living colt.

DESCRIPTION: Judas is a 6 year old purcheron, a steel gray, weighs 1700 pounds and is 16½ hands high. He is a perfect model and a world beater. Remember that the Auto and such like modes of conveyance have lessened the demand for saddle and harness horses. But remember that they have nothing to do with the Farm and Draft-horse. Remember that every farming country in the world wants the Purcheron horse. The leading mule producing States are raising mules from the Purcheron mares. See this horse before you breed, I will gladly show you his certificate of registration and Pedigree. Judas has proven himself to be a great breeder. His foals of 1913 are the best 1 year old colts ever seen in this country and his foals of 1914 are second to none. He is kind and well disposed.

Money due when colt is foaled or mare traded or removed from neighborhood.

All care will be taken to prevent accidents but not responsible should any occur.

The Only Fifth Wheel Farm Wagons on the Market
The International fifth wheel (patent applied for) is worth a trip to Iowa to see. Because it prevents the pulling up or pitching of the front bolster, it is one of the best improvements ever put on the farm wagon. It means no more bent and broken axle pins—no more bent and broken axle irons—longer life for the wagon, and easier work for the horse. See the International fifth wheel on Weber and Columbus wagons.
